

SIMON CARNE MA FIA

My website (www.simoncarne.com) contains a description of my work and testimonials (www.simoncarne.com/testimonials). This document contains my full employment history.

Employment details

1993 to date	Independent management consultant Principal area of work as a consultant and commentator on the interaction of economics with litigation and regulation.
2006-2008	CompAct Analysis LLP I created an internet service (compactanalysis.com) to provide company pension schemes with the means to compare actuarial valuations and funding levels, but it proved unsuccessful.
1990-1993	Putnam, Hayes & Bartlett Ltd US-owned economic and management consultants, specialising in public policy, strategy and regulation. Principal in the UK practice.
1982-1990	Ernst & Young Head of Forensic Accounting Group, 1986-90. Previously a consultant in the Management Consultancy Division.
1977-1982	Bacon & Woodrow, Consulting Actuaries Initially as a student actuary. Completed exams in 1981.

Part time appointments

2015-	Ofwat's Water 2020 Panel Advising water services regulator on policy
2011-	Financial Reporting Council Member of Disciplinary Tribunal panel
2011-	Visiting Lecturer, Imperial College Business School Teaching business communication and moderating case studies
2010-13	Association of Cambridge Mediators Member of panel of mediators
1994-2003	Panel of Economic and Business Advisers to OFTEL Advising successive Directors General on policy matters
2001-2003	Nominet UK, the registry for all .uk internet domain names Served two terms as Member of Nominet's Dispute Resolution Service Panel of Experts deciding disputes over domain names.
1998-2000	Visiting Lecturer, City University, Department of Economics Devising and teaching part of a new MSc in Competition & Economic Regulation.
1995-1998	Senior Adviser to Ernst & Young, Corporate Finance Part-time appointment advising Ernst & Young and its clients in connection with litigation, regulation and related matters.
1981-	Writer Writer and guest columnist for a variety of commercial and professional journals and publications, including The Financial Times , The Times , The Lawyer , The Actuary , Accountancy and other journals.

Voluntary appointments

- 1998-2006 The Institute and Faculty of Actuaries, numerous roles including:
- Member of Council (2001 to 2006)
 - Strategy & Policy Committee (2004 to 2006), including authorship of all formal submissions to the Morris Review for the Treasury
 - Professional Affairs [ie ethics] Board and Professional Guidance Committee, Deputy Chairman of both (2004-06).
 - Chairman of External Relations Committee (2002-2004) responsible for the profession's PR and dealings with media.
- 2001-2007 and 2012 to date Chairman, RGK Apartments, residential management company for 130+ apartments in Kensington. (From 2007-12, I swapped roles with the Finance Director in order to share the burden around.)
- 1988-1995 The Academy of Experts, a body formed to enhance the standards of expert witnesses:
- Founding Member of Council and, at various times, Member of Disciplinary Committee, Executive Committee and Chairman of Publications Committee
 - Member of a Task Force preparing the Academy's Code of Guidance for Experts and [Lawyers] Instructing Them, subsequently adopted by the Civil Justice Council in the definitive protocol governing the conduct of expert witnesses.

Education

MA, FIA, formerly MAE (see details below)

1974: Awarded Scholarship to New College, Oxford

1977: BA, New College, Oxford (converted to MA in 1983)

1981: Completed exams of the Institute of Actuaries (awarded Fellowship in 1983)

1988: Member of the Academy of Experts. I terminated my membership of the Academy in the late 1990s.