

Pop-up on hover

1 The Question & Answer technique was my new hammer but – as tempting

Another famous formulation is: "Give a small boy a hammer, and he will find that everything he encounters needs pounding." You can find this "law" attributed to many different people and presented in many different forms.

at follow, I have developed the following three questions and a suggestion to Properly formatted pop-up when I Click

1 The Question & Answer technique was my new hammer but – as tempting

Another famous formulation is: "Give a small boy a hammer, and he will find that everything he encounters needs pounding." You can find this "law" attributed to many different people and presented in many different forms.

Both pop-ups appear simultaneously when I select "Show footnote on hover"

1 The Question & Answer technique was my new hammer but – as tempting

Another famous formulation is: "Give a small boy a hammer, and he will find that everything he encounters needs pounding." You can find this "law" attributed to many different people and presented in many different forms.

this "law" attributed to many different people and presented in many different forms.

the questions and a suggestion to